FEDERAL COURT,

The Fall Term Opened With Judge Nathan Goff on the Bench.

TWO TERMS HELD AT ONE TIME

Is Something Unusual in West Virginia Judge Jackson Presiding at the Charleston Court-Only a Ten Days' Session in Wheeling-Cases Docketed for To-day, The Sweeney Case on Saturday-Marshal Garden on Duty Again.

The fall term of the United States district and circuit courts in this city, is usually held in September or early in October, but this year Judge Jackson, fearing the smallpox which was then epidemic here, postponed the term to the first week in December, Yesterday court opened with Judge Nathan Goff on the bench.

The presence of Judge Goff on the bench here is a reminder of an unusual condition of affairs in court circles, and that is the fact two terms of the United States court in West Virginia are being held simultaneously. Down at Char leston. Judge Jackson is holding court.

states court in vest virginis are sons held simultaneously. Down at Charleston, Judge Jackson is holding court, together with District Attorney Watts, Deputy Marshal Priddle, and half of the marshal's force. Here in Wheeling, Judge Goff presides, with Assistant District Attorney Stewart Walker, Marshal Garden and Clerks Moore and Deliliker. This is the first time in United States court listory in this state that two terms were held at the same time.

No cases were up in United States court yesterday, the day being devoted to securing the jury and preparing papers in cases set for the coming tendays, which is the estimated length of the term. To-day, the case of the sovernment against Nelson Virgin, from Marshall county, for violation of the pension laws, comes up. In addition, the district attorney was yesterday preparing information against three Wheeling people for improper use of the United States malls. One of the violations consisted in sending written patter wrapped up in newspapers simply for the purpose of saving a cent in post-age. Another of the accused persons spoke in uncomplimentary terms of his wife. The trial of the three will come off this morning, after which the Virgin case will come up.

The Sweeney counterfeiting case will be called on Saturday and will attract considerable local interest, as the crime was committed at Elm Grove.

Marshal Garden is now on duty at his office for the first time since the railroad accident at Tunnelton, in which he was involved. Though regaining his health rapidly, the marshal's trends hardly recognize him yet. He is still but a shadow of his former self. Judge Jackson will open the Martinsburg term of court Mart Tuesday. The Charleston session over which he is presiding now, is an unusually busy and lengthy one.

MAY LEAD TO REPRISALS.

Canada's Action Abrogating Part of the Fisheries Treaty.

Pisheries Treaty.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—It is apprehended here that the dithdrawal by the Canadian authorities of the rights exercised by American fishermen for seven years past of buying balt and supplies in Canadian waters may lead to reprisals at the hands of Congress, for it has been contended all along that the privilege enjoyed by Canadian rallroads of carrying goods in bond through the United States was more than a sufficient offset to the favors extended to American fishermen by Canada.

The action of the Canadian government just taken has not yet been officially reported to the state department, but it is regarded here as an indication of the Canadian purpose to emphasize the necessity for removal of negotiations looking to a new fisheries treaty.

American Missionaries Pully Protected. WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The Turk-ish legation received from the sublime ports the following telegram under today's date:

"The American missionaries enjoy in all the empire the greatest protection. Sufficient troops are placed as their special guard to shelter them against the attacks of the Armenian rioters. These very missionaries expressed to the imperial authorities their gratefulness for the afforded protection."

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 2.—

Some time probably will clapse before the case is decided.

In a total of 291,709 shares for the general market, the industrials figured for 210,200 shares and the sales of Sugar absorbed 164,500 shares of the latter record, leaving only $1,500 shares for the railroad list, Sugar opened fractionally higher at 105%, advanced on large dealings to 106%, reacted to 102% and closed at 103, or 2 points not lower as compared with the final price of the previous day. The early rise had been attempted to be explained by a higher market for fareign sugars, and the al-

CHICAGO. Dec. 2.—The wheat, corn and oats markets were all weak to-day. The two latter made a record breaking low prices and wheat lost 3c per bushel. An important business was done in wheat for shipments, but nothing was known of it while the session was progressing. After the close, however, it was known of it while the session was progressing. After the close, however, it was known of it while the session was progressing. After the close, however, it was known of a spring at 1½c over December and No. 1 northern and No. 2 spring in quantity sufficient to bring up the total to 400,000 bushels. Cash wheat, in To-ledo closed 83c over Chicago December and Detroit 93c over. Red winter will soon be a very fancy article. The opening prices for May were from 61%c down to 61%c, very little of it realising the higher quotation and the bulk of the first offerings were let go at the lower. Before the Bradstreets' statement was received the prices had declined to 60%c. Following its receipt, however, it railled to 60%fo3c, but maintained that advance only a short time before roiling down again to 60%c. No. 2 red winter was generally at Mayprice in store and some No. 3 spring brought 1%c for December. May futures, however, got down to 60%c and closed at 60%c.

Carn opened at 22@22%c and declined with many slight intermediate railles to 23%c. Closins prices for those were 25%c25%c Pespectively.

Oats was the best market on the floor. After the price had fallen off from 20% to 20c, which is the lowest price of the present crop and was the sellers price, the tide turned. Shorts bid eagerly for stuff and took all that could be obtained. December opened at 17%c, sold to 15%c and losed $6 lower than yesterdry at the low price.

Hog produce firmer, as receipts were not as large as expected. May pork has sold at $9 12%g0 17%. May lard at $5 62%g6. 55 and May ribs at $4 65% 4 67%. There was not much business during the last hour and but slight changes in value.
